

-  Library
-  Megalab
-  Practice
-  Favourites
-  Examples
-  eCourses
-  News
-  Events

Member LOGIN

-  My community
-  Forum
-  Hands on
-  All tools

Newsletter

-  Previous Issues

send itRSS NEWSHome > Practice > Favourites

Favourites

In this section, you can find tried and tested resources for teaching about science, selected by expert teachers from across Europe.

Assimina Kontogeorgiou: Physics and Chemistry Teacher

Assimina Kontogeorgiou is a secondary school science teacher from Volos, Greece. Member of the Greek Physical Society, she often participates in seminars and training courses in Greece and other European countries. In this article, she is sharing her favourite online resources,...

Read moreLidia Minza: Chemistry teacher

Lidia Minza is teaching chemistry at the "Vasile Alecsandri" National College in Galati, Romania. Responsible for the international cooperation program of the school, she is also promoting the "virtual chemistry laboratory" regional contest that encourages students and...

Read moreIvan De Winne: Mathematics teacher

Ivan teaches mathematics at a secondary school in the Dutch speaking part of Belgium. He also works part-time as in-service teacher trainer and is involved in several European projects. He strongly believes in the use of maths-software to explore mathematical concepts. His favourite...

Read moreBenito Bua Ares: Mathematics teacher

Benito Bua Ares is a mathematics teacher in a Spain secondary school, Galicia. He strongly believes in the use of computer tools for boosting the interests in maths in the classroom.

That is why he would like to share with you some links to websites he particularly recommends.

Read moreNikou Stavros: informatics teacher

Stavros Nikou is a secondary level Informatics teacher in Greece. His idea is that the web has changed the traditional classroom environment, though, the computers will never replace effective teachers. Teachers and students have nowadays a tremendous online repository of knowledge...

Read moreMarzana Miąsko: maths and computer science teacher

Marzana Miąsko is a secondary school maths and computer science teacher at the Gimnazjum 1 in Zawiercie, Poland.

Read more

Bernat Martínez Sebastià: Physics teacher and teacher trainer
Science & ICT Teacher trainer at CEFIRE (Centre for Professional Development, Innovation and Teaching Resources), Benidorm, Spain.
Read more

Eleni Kyriaki: Science and Informatics teacher
Eleni is science and informatics teacher at the Greek Gynasium/Lyceum and the European School III – both schools are in Brussels, Belgium. Here she describes her favourite online resources.
Read more

Palmira Ronchi – Maths teacher
I teach maths in a technical high school for programmers in Bari (ITCS Vivante, Italy) and I also work part-time in pre-service teacher training courses at the University of Bari.
Read more

Carlo Nati: Art and design drawing teacher, teacher trainer
Teacher trainer at SSIS - University of Rome - (Italy)
Bureau of educational information - MIUR - Rome (Italy)
Read more

Linda Giannini : Nursery school teacher and teacher trainer
Educational researcher and scholar; expert in multimedia and new technologies.
Read more

